This map shows the counties in which Oregon School Library Standards Committee members work. Each red circle represents a teacher-librarian from that county. The eastern and southeastern parts of the state have no representation because few or no teacher-librarians are on staff in most of those school districts. Prepared for SBE presentation, June 2019.